

Competency Standards for Pharmacists in Australia – PBS Hospital Medication Chart (Trial)

Standard	Competency	Element
Domain 1 – Professional and ethical practice
1.1	Practise legally	Element 1 – Comply with statute law, guidelines, codes and standards
1.2	Practice to accepted standards	Element 2 – Contribute to enhanced service quality
1.3	Deliver 'patient centred care'	Element 1 – Maintain primary focus on the consumer
1.4	Manage quality and safety	Element 1 – Protect and enhance consumer safety Element 2 – Respond to identified risk
1.5	Maintain and extend professional competence	Element 1 – Accept the importance of life-long learning
Domain 2 – Communication, collaboration and self-management
2.3	Collaborate with members of the health care team	Element 1 – Support team development and cohesion Element 2 – Promote effective teamwork Element 3 – Maintain an effective professional role
Domain 3 – Leadership and management
3.4	Manage quality service delivery	Element 2 – Maintain and enhance service quality
Domain 4 – Review and supply prescribed medicines
4.1	Undertake initial prescription assessment	Element 1 – Validate prescriptions Element 2 – Clarify medication orders Element 3 – Confirm availability of medicines
4.3	Dispense prescribed medicines	Element 1 – Apply a systematic dispensing procedure Element 2 – Manage records
Domain 8 – Critical analysis, research and education
8.1	Retrieve, analyse and synthesise information	Element 3 – Review and analyse information